FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WaterStone Bank Welcomes Two New Community Presidents

WAUWATOSA, Wis. – 11/23/2021 – WaterStone Bank welcomes two new Community Presidents at its Fox Point and Milwaukee/Oklahoma Ave. branches.

Brianna Burgess now leads as Community President of the bank's Fox Point branch. Formerly a branch manager at Associated Bank, Burgess brings seven years of banking experience to her new role and co-chairs for the black colleagues resource group. She is passionate about educating the community, coaches a local cheerleading team, and volunteers for the annual Back to School event at the Sherman Park Boys and Girls Club. Burgess resides in the Whitefish Bay area and looks forward to serving the Fox Point community.

Bryan Krajewski

Bryan Krajewski joins WaterStone Bank as Community President of the Milwaukee/Oklahoma Ave. branch. Krajewski brings 20 years of retail experience where he was a Store Manager at retailers Ross Dress for Less, Petco, and Michael's Arts and Crafts respectively. In his time as a manager, Krajewski rebuilt failing stores and reestablished company standards and expectations. He is an avid animal lover who volunteers his time at the Wisconsin Humane Society and enjoys going to the zoo. Krajewski looks forward to serving the Milwaukee community.
